Attorney Boice said the space has been dormant and Gideon has negotiated for a restaurant with Automatic Amusements and Entertainment and transfer of the Liquor License. She said he will be submitting the Automatic Amusement License soon. Chairman St. Pierre said that it seems as though they will be looking for Entertainment and Amusements above and beyond what was there in the past and they have to be careful with the tenant's in the building. Mr. Flores motioned to approve. Mr. Lee seconded. The Chairman said the motion carries.
11. Communications:
Claire Chalifour, owner of Leslie's Retreat came in to just inform the Board that the latest deal to Transfer the Liquor License fell through. She said this is the second time since last year this has happened and that they will now be working with an agent to list it. She said she will keep the Board updated about what is happening. Chairman St. Pierre said that the Board will work with her and knows she is trying to transfer it. Mary, Claire's daughter, said they were actually very shocked when this second proposal fell through. Ms. Pagliaro asked if they would like her to pass on their information to interested persons that call the office to inquire about licenses. Chairman St. Pierre said Ms. Pagliaro will let them know of the June meeting dates to come in and update the Board again.
12. Old/New Business:
*Sgt. Gaudet said he is looking into an assault that took place at O'Neill's. First it was thought that the assailant was a bouncer, the investigation discovered it was not by a bouncer. He said that he will keep the Board posted.
*Sgt. Gaudet said that he is also still investigating noise complaints at the Pig's Eye; he said the complaints are ramping up and have also gone to the Police Chief's office and the Mayor's office. He said he has done some spot check on Thursday nights and there has been nothing, he said he plans to do some checks on Friday and Saturday nights soon.
