

SALEM COMPASS

Vol. 2, Issue 12

July 12, 2024

Mayor's Message

Dear resident,

Last week, Salem celebrated Independence Day. But we also reflected on what that means.

We carry the responsibility to ensure that the vision of what America can be isn't diminished for the next generation. It's a vision for a nation where all are equal under the law, all are treated equally, and all are equally responsible for the success and integrity of our democracy.

In so many respects, we're still on the path toward that vision. America is a work in progress - and that work is all of our responsibility.

Independence Day is traditionally a day to celebrate the history that led us to this moment. But this moment requires us to take Independence Day further, by committing ourselves to the future success and integrity of our democracy.

Let's ensure that we continue to honor the legacy of 1776 not simply by looking backward, but by striding forward - building on the foundation of our past, facing our flaws and our challenges, and striving toward that vision of a more perfect union. A union framed by the basic principle of equality under the law and of liberty and justice for all.

Thank you to all of the sponsors, City and Park Service personnel, performers, and volunteers who helped make this year's July 4th celebration so remarkable and so special.

Dominick Pangallo

Calling All Creative Entrepreneurs and Public Artists

Artists' Row, at the heart of historic Salem, was originally built as a marketplace. Today, it is a thriving downtown public plaza, located at 24 New Derby St., across from Old Town Hall and Derby Square. It consists of four artists' stalls, a restaurant, a public restroom, public art, and a long pedestrian way.

The Artists' Row initiative is a seasonal program that provides space for artists and artisans looking to build their audience/business through daily engagement with residents and visitors. Through this initiative, the City of Salem aims to highlight and celebrate the diverse life experiences and unique heritages, attributes, characteristics, and perspectives that make each person who they are, while providing a springboard opportunity for creatives. Wherever artists are in their career, we hope to help take them to the next phase in their unique professional development journey. As a shared space for artists and visitors alike, artistic expression and creativity happen at Artists' Row, it's a place where arts-related goods, performances and activities can be experienced in a dynamic public setting.

The City of Salem is currently looking to fill:

- three (3) studio/retail space stalls, each with a two- year tenancy agreement from January 2025 through December 2026: and,
 - two (2) paid positions for Public Artists in Residence:
- one lasting from May to December 2025
- one lasting from May to December 2026.

The City is interested in tenants whose artistic expression will contribute to the vibrancy of the Artists' Row community and this important gateway to Salem's bustling downtown. The variety of activities and uses considered for Artists' Row spaces include, but are not limited to, original, uniquely produced or hand-crafted artworks and products, performance art, art 'happenings', art 'interventions', art making, and temporary public art installations.

Submission Deadline: Thursday, August 1, 2024 at 4pm.
