Winter Island Park is a family friendly campground owned and managed by the City of Salem, providing affordable quality recreation services and a wide range of maritime activities to the public. Situated on Salem Harbor's waterfront and minutes from the historic downtown, it is the closest campground to Boston on the North Shore, offering 22 tent campsites, and 28 RV campsites.

Winter Island has served the north shore for centuries, today offering a public beach for swimming and sunbathing, fishing, camping, and boating. It includes a playground, a state-owned boat ramp, a state-financed pier, and function facilities for special events.

All campsites have their own picnic table, RV sites have electrical and water hookups (no sewer). The park has one fee-free centrally located bathhouse with bathrooms and showers, open 24 hours every day during the camping season. The office/store are near the waterfront and provide basic camping necessities including snacks, drinks, and toiletries as well as Winter Island memorabilia.

Accommodations
